

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Any business that would like to contact me or anyone else that they already have an established business relationship with can do so by the postal service. If they don't wish to spend the money by contacting me through the mail, then obviously it isn't that important to them or to me.